THE DETAILS SURROUNDING THE CRIME

Nathan Oldfield has been an underground mob boss for approximately 20 years. He operates a large scale drug smuggling and human trafficking ring. His operation was assumed dissolved as his many of his gang members were arrested and his appearances and influence began to diminish. However, in recent years, activity from him and his affiliates have begun to spike again.

It is likely he has found new partners and co-conspirators. One of which is likely a long-standing criminal known only as John Doe (seek more info on this individual on www.USIDN.org). While his affiliates have been spotted being active again in kidnapping, drug smuggling, and human trafficking, he himself has yet to be spotted. If he is, maintain caution, as he is expected to have help nearby and be heavily armed and very dangerous.

An affiliate of his known as Connor Owens has been spotted within the past 5 years. Rewards and information regarding this individual is also on the above listed webpage.

If you have any information about this suspect or any related affiliates, you are strongly urged to contact the United States Information Distribution Network at (202) 555-0113.
